○ Apostille Convention

Multilateral agreement that replaces the complicated traditional legalization process with the issuance of a certificate called an Apostille. This certificate is issued by the state of origin and authenticates the origin of a public document so that it can be simply presented abroad in another Contrasting Party. · Official name: Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents. · For information about Apostille organs for each country, please visit www.hcch.net → Members & Parties → HCCH Members. · Applicants from Korean universities do not need an Apostille or authentication, but must submit the original documents of enrollment certificates, (expected) graduation certificates, and transcripts.

1. Applicants from member nations · Apostille-required documents: enrollment certificates, (expected) graduation certificates, and transcripts. · Issuing institutes: national organs for each nation. · Submission procedures: submit the required documents with the Apostille issued from the designated institutes. ※ Applicants may replace the Apostille with the "Certificate of Overseas Education Institutions" or an "Authentication issued from the Korean Embassy/Consulate."

2. Applicants from non-member nations · Authentication-required documents: enrollment certificates, (expected) graduation certificates, and transcripts. · Issuing institutes: Korean Embassies/Consulates in each nation. · Submission procedures: submit the required documents with the "Certificate of Overseas Education Institutions" or an "Authentication issued from the Korean Embassy/Consulate."

○ Original Document

Documents issued directly by the corresponding institution with a signature or official seal of the authority. If applicant is unable to submit original copies because the documents are not re-issuable, he/she must submit an explanatory statement along with the documents.

○ Original Document with Notarized Translation

Documents translated into Korean or English by an authorized notary office with a notary seal on it.
 · If the original is written in a language other than Korean or English, submit a notarized translation along with the original.
