I. Purpose

To encourage international students and individuals to undertake Huayu (Mandarin language) study in Taiwan, the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China (Taiwan) established the “Ministry of Education Huayu Enrichment Scholarship” program in 2005. While providing study opportunities for Huayu language and Taiwan’s culture at university- or college-affiliated Mandarin language centers, this program also aims to:

1. contribute to a better command of the Huayu, and hence a greater understanding and appreciation of Taiwanese culture.
2. promote friendship between Taiwan and countries around the world;
3. explore opportunities to increase exchange with international education institutions.

II. Amount of Scholarship

The monthly stipend is NTD25,000 (approximately US$800). Recipients are responsible for their own expenses. Twenty-five scholarships (total 300 months) for Thailand students have been allocated for 2025.

III. Duration of Award

1. Duration: three, six, nine or twelve months from September 1, 2025 through August 31, 2026.
2. Award periods:
 - 1) The yearly award period is from September 1, 2025 through August 31, 2026. If recipients fail to undertake their study in Taiwan during this period, their award status will be cancelled and cannot be extended for another year.

- 2) Recipients should be matriculated for the study term/quarter at the individual Mandarin training center as specified in the award.
- 3) If recipients begin their study after the intended study term/quarter has started, their award period will become effective from the month they matriculate at their individual Mandarin language centers in Taiwan.
- 4) A recipient's award period will end when his/her specified award period has finished. However, the award will terminate as soon as a recipient drops out, expelled from a language training center, or if his/her scholarship is revoked, whichever comes first.

- 3) The Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Thailand will issue a certificate of receiving award and assign the award period.

VI. Suspension and Revocation

1. Suspension:

1) Attendance Records:

With the exception of a serious illness or accident, if a recipient is absent from his/her required language sessions for up to 12 hours within a single month, the award will be suspended for one month and the stipend cannot be reclaimed.

2) Academic Performance:

Beginning from the first term/quarter of his/her study in Taiwan, if a recipient's academic average scores for a study term/quarter are less than 80 points out of 100, the award will be suspended for one month in the next term/quarter, and the stipend cannot be reclaimed.

2. Revocation:

A recipient will be permanently disqualified from receiving a HES and the remaining stipends will be cancelled, if any one of the following situations arises:

- 1) Recipients receiving the HES for 6 months or more fail to submit, at the time of matriculation for each study term/quarter, an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) with the reason "Pursuing Studies", by the deadline as specified by his/her Mandarin language center.
- 2) Failure to achieve an average academic score of 80 or above out of 100 for two consecutive terms/quarters of study.
- 3) Missing a final achievement score for any study term/quarter, with the exception of a serious illness or accident.
- 4) Dropping out or being expelled from school.
- 5) Simultaneously in receipt of another scholarship or subsidy offered by the Taiwan government or educational institutions.
- 6) Working illegally, violating R.O.C. law, university or Mandarin Language Center regulations.

VII. Scholarship Payment Schedule

In principle, stipends will monthly disburse to recipients, through the Mandarin language centers where the recipients attend classes, and by a method as specified by the individual institutions.

VIII. Medical/Health Insurance Requirements

It is mandatory that recipients participate in the National Health Insurance Plan (NHI Plan) and purchase the policies for Student Accident Insurance after 6 months of their residence and study in Taiwan. The recipients' educational institutions can deduct fees for these insurance plans from the recipients' stipends, before processing and granting funds to them.

As a requirement for matriculation at their intended educational institutions, recipients must have medical/health insurance policies (Non- NHI Plan) upon arrival in Taiwan. These policies can be purchased by the educational institutions in Taiwan.

- In case of any contradictions, the Chinese version of Ministry of Education Huayu Enrichment Scholarship (HES) International Student Directions, revised on December 22, 2011 (see details at <https://edu.law.moe.gov.tw/EngLawContent.aspx?lan=E&id=70&KW=Huayu>) shall prevail.
- Applicants should read the program guidelines carefully; for more details, please contact Educational Division, Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Thailand via email: tecthailand168@gmail.com, or consult with LINE @TTedu in either Thai, English or Chinese.
