Kasetsart University Announcement
Regarding Safety Measures and Guidelines to Prevent the Spread of the COVID-19
Issue 27

The recent spread of Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) pandemic in Bangkok which has been linked to new clusters of infections detected in entertainment venues, has resulted in a high risk of infection to Kasetsart University students and staff.

In order to restrain and prevent the spread of Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) and to ensure that workplaces are administrated smoothly and effectively, by virtue of the authority granted by Section 37 of Kasetsart University Act B.E. 2558, all Kasetsart University offices shall operate as follows:

1. All offices shall implement the work from home protocols.

Administrative supervisory authorities shall establish guidelines, assign work duties, and implement protocols for staff to work from home. All staff shall regularly submit a work from home Report detailing compliance with the established guidelines of their offices. However, working on site shall remain in place to carry out necessary duties.

2. All faculties are requested to conduct classes and examinations online.

The faculties should consider operating classes and examinations online.

If students have already been notified to attend on-site examinations (or if examinations have not yet been scheduled), it is requested that all examinations be conducted online.

Furthermore, for any examinations that have already been scheduled but cannot be adapted to online format promptly, if there a student with a high risk of COVID-19 enrolled in the class and is unable to attend the examination, the instructor shall arrange for an individual online examination or postpone the examination.

3. All departments are required to strictly follow the standard health measure to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

The head of each department shall supervise the KU staff to be careful and strictly comply with the COVID-19 safety measures as announced by the Ministry of Public Health.

4. If any operation cannot be conducted in accordance with this announcement, the President shall have final decision-making authority.

This announcement should be implemented between 8-16 April 2021 and remain in effect until further notice.

Announced 8 April 2021
